Sal. Oppenheim expands management team of Oppenheim Asset Management Services S.à.r.l.

SINCE JANUARY, DR. ANDREAS SCHMIDT-VON RHEIN HAS BEEN IN CHARGE OF RISK MANAGEMENT AND FUND CONTROLLING OF ASSET MANAGEMENT

LUXEMBOURG, 29 JANUARY 2008

- Strengthening the service offering of Oppenheim Asset Management Services S.à.r.l. within the Sal. Oppenheim Group
- Comprehensive activity across all Asset Management sections

Oppenheim Asset Management Services S.à.r.l. (OPAM) based in Luxembourg has expanded its management team to five members: Since January, Dr. Andreas Schmidt-von Rhein (42) has boosted the management team of the Sal. Oppenheim Group subsidiary specialized in fund administration and services for the fund industry. He is responsible for performance and risk analysis, risk/outourcing controlling and fund controlling in all Asset Management sectors. The OPAM management team is thus composed of Andreas Jockel, Harry Rosenbaum, Dr. Andreas Schmidt-von Rhein, Marco Schmitz and Anita Zuleger.

Dr. Schmidt-von Rhein joined the company in 1996 as an analyst in quantitative research at Oppenheim Research GmbH. Under his management at Oppenheim Kapitalanlagegesellschaft mbH, the Portfolio Analysis unit was created in 1999; the unit was subsequently expanded and in 2005 enhanced to include the Risk Management sector. Prior to his activities at Oppenheim, Dr. Schmidt-von Rhein studied business information technology at the University of Bamberg, and earned his doctorate working as an assistant in the department of Finance and Banking at the University of Freiburg from 1992 to 1996.
